

- this / that
Wenn du auf eine Person oder Sache in der Nähe hinweisen willst benutzt du this. Wenn weiter entfernt that.
That wird oft mit der Kurzform (that's) verwendet oft auch im Zusammenhang mit over there.
Wenn du zwei Personen oder Dinge vergleichen willst verwendest du zuerst This und dann that. z.B. This is a cat and that is a dog.
- these / those
Ist einfach der Plural von this / that

Setze this / that oder these / those ein!

- 🐾 _____ is Florian. He's my friend.
- 🐾 _____ is a cat and _____ is a dog over there.
- 🐾 _____ boys and girls here are new.
- 🐾 Is _____ a mouse<sup>1</sup> over there?
- 🐾 _____ is Sophia. She isn't my friend.
- 🐾 _____ aren't my pencils<sup>2</sup>. My pencils are here.
- 🐾 Are _____ your new roller skates<sup>3</sup>? They're great.
- 🐾 Is _____ Sarah over there?
- 🐾 _____ is Becky. She is at Lernwolf School. And _____ her best friend, Sarah.

<sup>1</sup> mouse = Maus

<sup>2</sup> pencil = Bleistift

<sup>3</sup> roller skates = Rollschuhe

Lösung

Englisch

Demonstrativpronomen: this / that und these / those

---

- 🐾 This is Florian. He's my friend.
- 🐾 This is a cat and that is a dog over there.
- 🐾 These boys and girls here are new.
- 🐾 Is that a mouse<sup>4</sup> over there?
- 🐾 This is Sophia. She isn't my friend.
- 🐾 Those aren't my pencils<sup>5</sup>. My pencils are here.
- 🐾 Are these your new roller skates<sup>6</sup>? They're great.
- 🐾 Is that Sarah over there?
- 🐾 This is Becky. She is at Lernwolf School. And that's her best friend, Sarah.

---

<sup>4</sup> mouse = Maus

<sup>5</sup> pencil = Bleistift

<sup>6</sup> roller skates = Rollschuhe

